

RAND REFINERY

THERE'S ALWAYS A SILVER LINING

As one of the world's most versatile precious metals, silver is prized for its purity, brilliance, and enduring relevance.

It offers investors a practical way to diversify a precious metals portfolio, combining accessibility with long-term value.

With Rand Refinery, that value is refined to meet global standards.

SILVER LOXO BARS

Distinctive design

Refined to 99.9% purity, each bar reflects premium quality and precision craftsmanship. Designed with a distinctive finish, it offers both visual appeal and enduring value.

1oz Minted Silver Bar

Accessible investment

Individually packaged for convenience, the 1oz bar (31.1035g) allows for both incremental investment and bulk purchase.

TIMELESS IN BEAUTY. ENDURING IN VALUE.

Crafted to endure

Silver's natural resistance to oxidation and its ability to retain fine detail make it a material of lasting beauty. Each bar is refined to preserve its integrity, today and for years to come.

Competitive value

Positioned to reflect the true value of silver, our pricing remains competitive within the global market, making it an attractive entry point for both new and seasoned investors.

A trusted legacy

For over a century, Rand Refinery has set the standard in precious metals refining. As an LBMA-accredited Good Delivery Refiner and Referee, every silver bar is responsibly sourced, fully traceable, and refined with uncompromising integrity.
